

Student Performance and Learning Outcomes

1. After completion under graduate courses of B.A. and B.Com., through curricular and extra curricular activities character and personality of the student will be developed.
2. The practice and practical of the work culture and dignity of labour among the students will make them ideal citizen of India.
3. After graduation students will proceed for Higher Education and professional education.